

IMPORTANT: When you open an account with NDB Wealth Management Limited, your money will be invested in a financial plan, which would have one or many unit trust funds associated with it or be directly invested in a unit trust fund.

Each unit trust fund will have a trustee and a custodian approved by the Securities & Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka to safeguard the interests of the account holder. NDB Wealth Management Limited will be the fund manager or the advisor to the unit trust funds offered under this document. The prices of units of unit trust funds could move up as well as down from time to time due to market fluctuations and the investor may not get back the original sum invested. If you are in any doubt about the contents of this website please refer to the Explanatory Memorandum of the underlying mutual fund(s) or consult your bank manager, attorney-at-law, accountant or other financial adviser. In the event that you choose not to seek advice from bank manager, attorney-at-law, accountant or other financial adviser, you should carefully consider whether the product is suitable for you.
